

HMRC ARE CLAMPING DOWN...

TAX INVESTIGATION SERVICE FOR ALL

HMRC SET TO GROW THEIR REVENUES...

...DON'T LET IT BE AT YOUR EXPENSE.

In these times of austerity the government is pursuing tax revenue. HMRC are targeting both businesses and individuals who they believe have underpaid their tax. They do not need a reason to investigate you.

- HMRC have Spending Review commitments to bring in extra revenue of £7 billion a year by 2015.
- HMRC collected a record compliance yield of £20.7 billion almost £2 billion above their target for the year.
- HMRC redeployed more than 5,000 people to new or different compliance roles to help meet Spending Review targets.

Unfortunately innocent businesses and individuals get caught up in the process and are under threat of investigation. This is a difficult time for many businesses and individuals, you may feel that the last thing you need is the inconvenience and expense of a tax investigation.

IT CAN HAPPEN TO YOU.

There doesn't need to be a reason for HMRC to trigger an investigation. Every taxpayer who submits a tax return is at risk. No-one is immune.

Win or lose, you always have to pay the cost of handling the investigation, which is over and above our normal fees and the costs involved could be substantial.

Disruptive, intrusive and expensive; when HMRC investigate you or your business it can drag on for a year or more saddling you with spiraling costs and rocketing stress levels.
